Opening Hymn

Angels from the realms of glory, Wing your flight o'er all the earth; Ye who sang creation's story, Now proclaim Messiah's birth

Come and worship, come and worship; Worship Christ, the newborn King.

Shepherds in the field abiding, Watching o'er your flocks by night: God with us is now residing; Yonder shines the infant Light Come and worship . . .

Sages, leave your contemplations; Brighter visions beam afar; Seek the great desire of nations; Ye have seen His natal star Come and worship... Saints, before the altar bending, Watching long in hope and fear, Suddenly the Lord, descending, In His temple shall appear Come and worship...

Closing Hymn

Once in royal David's city Stood a lowly cattle shed, Where a mother laid her baby In a manger for His bed: Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ, her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven Who is God and Lord of all, And His shelter was a stable, And His cradle was a stall; With the poor and mean and lowly, Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

And our eyes at last shall see Him, Through His own redeeming love, For that child, so dear and gentle, Is our Lord in heav'n above, And He leads His children on To the place where He is gone

Not in that poor, lowly stable With the oxen standing by We shall see Him, but in heaven, Set at God's right hand on high. Then like stars His children crowned, All in white. His praise will sound

Closing Prayer/Benediction: Jesuovie Isuosuo
